

Vision of the DMR (Pyin Oo Lwin Branch)

1. To undertake research that contributes to the improvement of the health of the people of Myanmar
2. To conduct research utilizing new scientific knowledge and technologies in solving health problems of Myanmar
3. To improve scientific knowledge in the country by capacity building of resources, introducing new technologies, providing research training and by promoting research culture in academic institutions
4. To contribute towards socioeconomic development of the country through appropriate medical research

Missions of the DMR (Pyin Oo Lwin Branch)

To develop and promote solutions to the major health problems of Myanmar

1. To investigate communicable diseases with emphasis on emerging and re-emerging diseases affecting health of the people
2. To investigate non-communicable diseases affecting National Health
3. To investigate nutritional factors and life style changes affecting health
4. To strengthen research capacity through development of infrastructure and human resources, necessary for medical research
5. To carry out health systems research highlighting effective and efficient health delivery systems including reproductive health
6. To promote research on accidental, occupational, environmental and climatic factors affecting human health
7. To carry out research on traditional medicine for safe and effective utilization within the existing health care system
8. To promote research culture at medical and related health institutions and to provide academic and technical training for post graduate students
9. To enhance technology development and analytical services applicable in the diagnosis, management and control of common diseases or conditions